

MRS. LEEDS' 'AUNT' SENDS SOS CALL

Stillman Lawyers Said to Have Been Asked to Help Her Dodge Process Servers.

BEESIEGED FOR 3 DAYS

Report Current She Appealed to Undertaker to Remove
Her in a Coffin.

Her home still besieged by process servers, Mrs. Fannie Glidden, "stage aunt" of Mrs. Florence H. Leeds, one of the correspondents named by Mrs. Anne Truquhart Potter Stillman in her "affirmative defence," was reported yesterday as having sent word to the lawyers for James A. Stillman that she would become a witness for the defence if they did not come to her aid.

In the meanwhile Mrs. Glidden continues virtually a prisoner in her apartment, at 297 West 184th street, the blinds of which have been drawn for the last three days. No response can be obtained to rings of the front door bell or at the door leading from the hallway into the Glidden apartment. Mrs. Glidden has not even taken the trouble to collect a quantity of mail that has accumulated in her letter box during the last seventy-two hours.

It was reported yesterday morning that Mrs. Glidden, in her desire to get out of the apartment without being served, had called up a Washington Heights undertaker and had asked him to bring around a coffin, but the identity of the supposed undertaker could not be learned, although every embalming shop within a radius of ten blocks was visited.

Charles J. Wallace of the office of John H. Brennan, chief counsel for Mrs. Stillman, received word last night which caused him to make a hurried trip to the West 184th street apartment house. Mr. Wallace has been directing the force of process servers and none of the old time tricks has been overlooked in their effort to get to Mrs. Glidden. It develops that the dumbwaiter door was locked only after a process server had almost gained admittance to the apartment that way.

Mrs. Glidden is reported to have told friends that she was "well paid" to stay out of New York, and that she returned here believing that "the Stillman case had blown over."

"I was given a big wad of dough," she is quoted as having said, "and told to fight shy of New York until things settled down. I went out to Indianapolis to see a friend and remained there until the money gave out. Then I went to Boston to see Flo (Mrs. Leeds), but I found she had returned to New York and I followed her here."

How Mrs. Glidden has obtained her food for the last three days is a mystery to the process servers. George H. Pasco, son of Mrs. Glidden by a former marriage, who has been the only one to enter the apartment, has not been seen carrying any bundles.

GOVERNOR PRAISES STATE INSTITUTIONS

Returns to Albany After Week's Inspection.

ALBANY, June 11.—Gov. Miller on his return to the Capitol to-day after a week spent in inspecting State institutions in western New York expressed satisfaction with the impressions of his trip.

Situations were all doing a splendid work," he said. "I was very greatly impressed at each one and I was also very glad to ascertain that the process which the Legislature has made for the institutions for the coming year is more than liberal and that the inmates are receiving splendid care. Everything is being done for their comfort and happiness that such institutions can give."

The Governor visited the Buffalo, Gowanda and Rochester State Hospitals, the Western House of Refuge for Women at Albion, the cancer laboratory at Buffalo, the Boys Correctional School at Liberty, the Thomas Indian School and the school for the blind and the State police barracks at Batavia.

$200,000 FIRE AT FT. NIAGARA.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 11.—Col. Fred D. Evans, officer in command of Fort Niagara, to-day estimated the damage done by the fire at the fort early this morning at $200,000. The property loss due to the destruction of buildings, he said, would not exceed $150,000, while a large supply of hospital equipment which was stored in the buildings and burned was valued at $50,000.

DECLINES $10,000 STATE JOB.

Dr. Snyder, Jersey City School Superintendent, Urged to Remain.

Dr. Henry Snyder, superintendent of the public schools of Jersey City, announced yesterday he has declined the appointment as State Commissioner of Education, tendered by Gov. Edwards and confirmed by the State Senate. The appointment was for five years at a salary of $10,000 a year.

He gave out a copy of a letter which he sent to Gov. Edwards at Sea Girt. It read in part:

"Since the appointment was made appeals have been made to me by citizens to the end that I retain my position in this city, and members of the Board of Education of this city also have most strongly urged that I remain here. A very extensive and important programme for construction of new school buildings and expansion of school facilities and of school instruction has been outlined which the Board of Education demands and which the City Commission has planned to carry out."
